

Round Robin 2017 Materials List

Class Name/Instructor (In order of class offering)	Materials List
Everything about Skinner Blend Nadia Valiaeva	Clay: Various colors clay, translucent too if desired Tools: Pasta machine, work surface, blade
Water Color Play with Clay Kathy Spignese	Clay: 4 oz. white, 2 oz. black, liquid transparent Kato clay, scrap clay Tools: Watercolor paints (tube paints suggested, inexpensive OK, instructor will have very limited amount to try), plastic pallet and two paint brushes (one for clay one for paint), thin wood skewer, rubbing alcohol, heat gun if you have one (or borrow instructors). Pasta machine, work surface, blades, needle tool.
Three Expressions Pendant Corliss Rose	Conditioned clay: 2 oz. scrap clay, 1 oz. black clay, .5 oz., white clay, .5 oz. gold, pearl, or a colored metallic clay; .25 oz. turquoise, re orange, mint green, Liquid Polymer or Genesis Clear Gel Tools: Alcohol, Q-tips, texture sheets suitable for Sutton Slice or preferred patterns, needle tool or tooth picks, flexible tissue blade craft knife, 6" ruler, small size cutters (circle, square, oval, triangle). Pasta machine, work surface, blades, Pre-work: Skinner blends of your choice, bullseye canes in colors contrast to blends (.5 inches diameter) or smaller – stripe canes with translucent Optional: Pre-work clay veneers - watercolor tear, mokumé gané and kaleidoscope canes or bring a variety for more creative options
Ink and Plastic Wrap – A Brand New Trick Gloria Clanin	Clay: Translucent Premo or Pardo Tools: Alcohol inks of various colors (Instructor will have some to share), cling wrap film, mesh textural sheet, glass tile (with safe edges), acrylic rolling pin, stamps, Stazon ink pad, pasta machine, work surface, blades. Provided by Instructor: Inexpensive small pipettes, for purchase at class Please Note: Alcohol solvent under search by instructor, will have update

Class Name/Instructor (In order of class offering)	Materials List
Chips Necklace Nadia Valiaeva	Clay: Please note: For color gradient chips use three colors – your preferred color, white and black clay; and it may be helpful to create a Skinner Blend in advance. For other styles, size gradient and carved chips, the color(s) of your choice Tools: Pasta machine, work surface, plastic transparent sheet protector, graph paper, needle, small glass or acrylic plate, thin cord to gather chips. Pre-work: Skinner blend of your preferred color, black, and white
Creative Wire Wrapping and Wire Links Kathy Spignese	Pre-work: Clay beads to wrap with wire Tools: Non-tarnish wire 24 gauge, wire cutters, pliers: round nose, chain nose (no teeth), and flat. Rubber or nylon mallet, steel block if you have them or borrow instructor's
Learn Multiple Techniques and Cover an Altoid Box Yvette Macy	Clay: Premo clay: yellow, blue, magenta, Liquid Sculpey Tools: Altoid tin, texture sheet or tool, sculpting tool, embossing powder, shaped cutters, extruder, glass beads, and glitter. Pasta machine work, blades. Some tools can be shared with the instructor.
Exploring Translucent Clay with Pan Pastels Ellie Hitchcock	Clay: Translucent clay Tools: Pan Pastels, if you have them; small cosmetic sponges; needle tool, stencils (if you have some). Pasta machine, work surface, blades

Class Name/Instructor (In order of class offering)	Materials List
Who's Afraid of Silkscreens? syndee holt	Clay: Provided by instructor Tools: Pasta machine, work surface, blades. Provided by instructor: Templates, alcohol markers, silkscreens and stamps
Beginning Sculpting and Armature Tricks Kasi Althaus	Clay: 2 ounces clay (scrap clay and some of your favorite colors) Tools: 6-8mm black glass beads, 18 gauge wire, bamboo skewer, and needle tool. Pasta machine, work surface, and tissue blade
Zen and the Art of Sutton Slice Kathy Hepburn	Clay: One or two 1 oz. colors of clay, 1 oz. white, and 2 oz. translucent clay (all pre-conditioned) Tools: Flexible rubber texture sheet/stamp with moderately deep engraving (5.5 x 4.25 preferred) – like Lisa Pavelka, Helen Breil, etc. products (often red or gray color rubber). Pasta machine, work surface, tissue blade and flexible blade, 1 etch and pearl tool, straight edge (ruler), craft knife, extruder with smallest rectangular disk Provided by instructor: Straight sided clear glass votive and candle, for purchase at class ($1), flat latex cosmetic sponge, alcohol wipes. Some flexible sheet/stamps to borrow.
Three Expressions Pendant Corliss Rose	Conditioned clay: 2 oz. scrap clay, 1 oz. black clay, .5 oz., white clay, .5 oz. gold, pearl, or a colored metallic clay; .25 oz. turquoise, re orange, mint green, Liquid Polymer or Genesis clear gel Tools: Alcohol, Q-tips, texture sheets suitable for Sutton Slice or preferred patterns, needle tool or tooth picks, flexible tissue blade craft knife, 6" ruler, small size cutters (circle, square, oval, triangle). Pasta machine, work surface, blades, Pre-work: Skinner blends of your choice, bullseye canes in colors contrast to blends (.5 inches diameter) or smaller - stripe canes with translucent Optional: Pre-work clay veneers - watercolor tear, mokumé gané and kaleidoscope canes bring a variety for more creative options